

Sumitra
Samajik Kalyan Sansthan

Organization Profile

Scale, reach and institutional readiness

600+

villages

450

Gram Panchayats

32

blocks

12

districts

~10,000

households reached

Operating footprint

8 districts in Uttar Pradesh

4 districts in Madhya Pradesh

Six connected areas of community development

Programmes combine direct services, community mobilisation and links to public systems.

PH

Public Health & HIV

Prevention, screening, counselling, referral and care linkages

WL

Women & Livelihoods

Collective action, skills, finance linkages and enterprise support

AR

Adolescent & Reproductive Health

Information, hygiene, safe abortion and preventive care

WS

Water, Sanitation & Hygiene

Safe water, sanitation awareness and healthier living practices

AC

Agriculture & Climate Resilience

Farm livelihoods, local knowledge and resilient production

MW

Migrant & Worker Welfare

Health access, referrals and social protection linkages

WHO SUMITRA WORKS WITH

Communities facing limited access to services

Women and girls
Small and marginal farmers
Dalit and Adivasi communities
People living with or affected by HIV
Migrant and vulnerable workers

GEOGRAPHIC BASE

Deep roots in Bundelkhand

Sumitra began work in Hamirpur in 1993 and built programme experience across Uttar Pradesh and Madhya Pradesh.

UTTAR PRADESH

8

districts

MADHYA PRADESH

4

districts

Local delivery platform

Community groups, Gram Panchayats, frontline workers and existing public institutions form the core implementation network.

Public health and HIV implementation

Historic results recorded in Sumitra's existing organization profile.

12,000

HIV tests reported

200

health check-up camps

9,000

people reached through camps

3,200

people reached through targeted interventions

Experience includes HIV prevention, STI services, counselling, referrals, community mobilisation and links to entitlements.

Livelihoods, agriculture and local institutions

Historic results recorded through agriculture and women's livelihood programmes.

29,678

small and marginal farmers benefited

292

self-help groups formed and linked

5

producer companies formed

200

women started income-generating activities after training

Recorded programme activities also include water-user groups, farmer events, livestock camps and livelihood training.

Experience with public and development partners

Selected relationships recorded in Sumitra's existing organization profile.

PUBLIC HEALTH SYSTEMS

National AIDS Control Organisation
State AIDS Control Societies in Uttar Pradesh and Madhya Pradesh
District and frontline health systems

FOUNDATIONS & CSR

IPAS Development Foundation
Family Health India through Godrej
CSR support
Rimjhim Ispat CSR support

LIVELIHOODS & RIGHTS

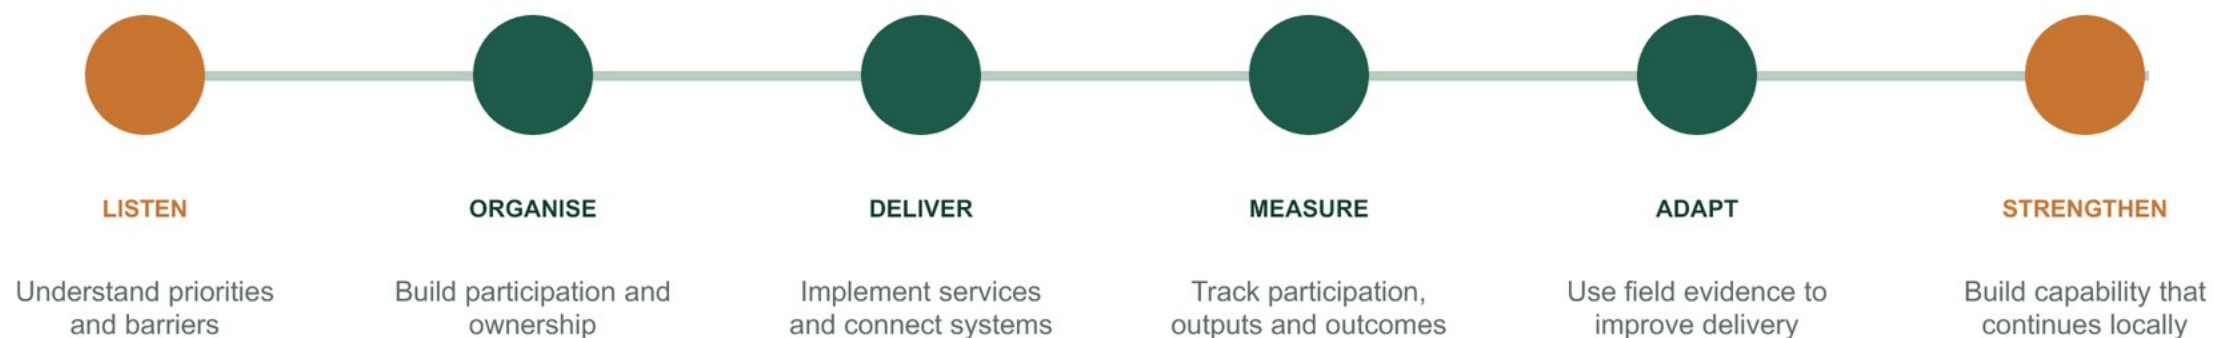

Uttar Pradesh Bhumi Sudhar Nigam in a World Bank funded programme
Rashtriya Mahila Kosh
National Commission for Women
Oxfam India and civil-society alliances

Partner value

Field mobilisation, public-system convergence, programme delivery and structured reporting from underserved geographies.

A community-to-system delivery approach

Each programme begins with local priorities and ends with stronger local capability.

Community groups and existing institutions remain part of the programme architecture from design through review.

Core registrations and financial readiness

Documentation can be provided through a controlled partner due-diligence process.

SOCIETY

Registration no. 476/1993

CSR-1

CSR00052163

FCRA

136480014

TAX

12A and 80G registrations

DARPAN

UP/2016/0099048

GST

Registered

PARTNERSHIP

Looking for an experienced implementation partner?

Sumitra works with CSR teams, public institutions and international development partners seeking community-based implementation in underserved geographies.

director@sumitrasansthan.org

+91 5280 223268

Sumitra Cottage, Mohal Pathnow, Rath, District Hamirpur, Uttar Pradesh

sumitrasansthan.org

